IN BRIEF.

Nainsooks, marseilles and piquets a cost, at Harris Bros.

County Commissioner Jacob Klein is reported as being quite sick.

There is quite a number of pot hunters about who should be looked after.

Kittle Belly Brown is now keeping a livery stable at Walla Walla, W. T.

Miles Finlen has resigned his position as Roadmaster of Storey county.

U. S. Marshal P. S. Corbett was in town yesterday making arrangements to qualify.

John Dorathy had his hand badly mutilated at the V. & T. work shops yesterday morning.

A large number of campers will leave here this morning for Hope Valley and that vicinity.

Julia Beals continues to languish in the County jail. The old girl will have a chance to sober up.

General George M. Sabin, the new U. S. District Judge for this State, arrived here yesterday.

There is a probability that the Union Square Company, now playing in San Francisco, will appear in Carson very soon.

Attention is called to the advertisement on the second page of the Exchange Mill, at Silver Mountain, of bids wanted.

General Sabin, the new U. S. District Judge, was handsomely entertained by his military staff prior to moving from Eureka to this city.

George H. Morrison, ex-Grand Chancellor K. of P. of this State, left here on Tuesday night for Detroit, to attend the Supreme Lodge.

Lost, between Ophir and Washoe, a collection book. The finder will be suitably rewarded upon leaving the same with D. Circe, at the French Hotel. See advertisement.

Mrs. R. E. Kelly and Miss Adele Waters left for San Francisco last night. Miss Waters will remain at the Bay about ten days, after which she goes to New York.

Notwithstanding the large audience at the Opera House on Monday night, the Ladies' Library scarcely realized $100, owing to the great expense attached to the entertainment.

The Kewanee Bank Robbery.

KEWANEE, Ill., August 15.—The bank robbers were seen this morning near Mineral, Illinois. Parties are in pursuit, with every prospect of arresting both men before night. Over 300 men are scouting in every direction. Mr. Pratt and Miss Palmer are in a precarious condition to-day. Miss Palmer is badly bruised and feverish, being prostrated by excitement. The business houses and shops are all closed, the owners joining in the chase.

Speck of War.

A Carsonite who came up from San Francisco yesterday says that the passage of the anti-Chinese law is likely to imbroil us in a war with Great Britain. A few days since a British merchant, accompanied by his Chinese servant, arrived at the Bay from Shanghai, en route for England. The San Francisco authorities refused the Chinese servant permission to land. The Britisher remonstrated, declaring that he had a right to travel with any kind of a servant that pleased him, and that no "infernal Yankee Government" could prohibit it. In the meantime the "Yankee Government" is prohibiting the Chinaman from landing. The Britisher has telegraphed on to his Minister at Washington requesting counsel as to what course he had better pursue. He is very wrathful and swears that in less than sixty days San Francisco will meet with the fate of Alexandria. England will certainly send out forty or fifty bombarding ships to assist this idiot in trampling upon our laws.

A Statistician.

About a week ago an old bummer who has been hanging around the Ormsby House for a long while getting free drinks, was set to work to count the flies accidentally killed in the bar-room of that house by means of fly poison and fly paper. He determined by actual count that within the last seven days 240,091 flies have perished in that establishment. But judging from the number yet to be seen there one would not believe that a solitary one had given up the ghost.

Getting Their Backs Up.

A prominent Virginia City Democrat informs the APPEAL that the good men of both political parties on the Comstock are so thoroughly dissatisfied with the manner in which county affairs have been conducted there for the past two years that if the Republicans put up a half way decent ticket they will have a "walk over." He says that the rottenness in county matters to be exposed before the election will create a strong and most unpleasant odor.

Suspicious.

Dr. Dawson, of the Reno Asylum, informed an APPEAL reporter that he dismissed quite a number of patients who he is sure have not been insane for many months. Judging from that, it appears that the detention of these unfortunates at the Stockton Asylum was merely a matter of dollars and cents with Dr. Clarke. If this supposition could be satisfactorily proven it would be well to make an example of the offender.

The Rayercraft Trial.

The case of Jerry Rayercraft, charged with stabbing Sheriff Williams at Genoa, was given to the jury yesterday noon. It is not believed that they will agree, unless it is upon an offense lighter than the one he is charged with, which is a State Prison crime.

LATER—Since the above was in type we were shown a private dispatch from Genoa, announcing that the jury had returned a verdict of not guilty.

Sympathetic.

Dan De Quille is indignant because officer Stern has compelled the Carson Chinese to discontinue the nocturnal barbaric noises. He thinks it ungenerous to deprive them of their innocent amusement. If Dan were living within a half mile of that bedlamite neighborhood for one week, he would express himself in favor of annihilating the entire Chinese race.

Hard Luck.

A week or two ago an old widow in this town received $150 for a large lot of improved and unimproved real estate for which she could have realized between $6,000 and $7,000 a few years ago. She mortgaged one piece after another, losing the money by bad investments, and now the above sum is all she has of her former little fortune.

Game Law.

The game law does not expire until the 1st of September, and those who are caught shooting any game but doves and sagehen, or other game found in their possession are liable to prosecution and a very heavy fine.

Farewell Banquet.

The military staff of General George M. Sabin, who left for Carson this morning to assume the duties of United States District Judge, gave him a farewell banquet at the Jackson House Restaurant last evening. The bill of fare was sumptuous and the viands served in elegant style. The party consisted of General George M. Sabin, General P. E. Connor, Colonel E. N. Robinson, Majors H. T. Hoadley, G. H. Thomas, William Stinson, H. H. Conklin, C. J. R. Butler, E. Davidson and T. J. Read, Captains William Wallace and T. Johns, and Hon. W. W. Bishop, General Sabin's law partner. The Union Guard Band was in attendance during the earlier part of the evening and discoursed excellent music. Before the close of the banquet General Sabin was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by his staff, Hon. W. W. Bishop making the presentation with a few happy remarks. We should have said that in all this Colonel E. N. Robinson was one with General Sabin's staff, and from his known delicacy of taste in such matters we jump to the conclusion that he had much to do in arranging things so as to have it one of the pleasantest and most recherche events of the kind that has ever taken place in Eureka.—Eureka Leader, 15th.

Cassidy's Bancombe.

The people of Carson have soured on Congressman Cassidy, and justly too. After Senator Fair had engineered the public building bill through the Senate our Congressman was the first to announce the fact to the people of Nevada by wire, and in a manner to throw out the influence that he coached Senator Fair in the matter. He also intimated that there would be no difficulty in passing the bill at once in the House through the medium of his popularity and inference. Congress has adjourned and the House did not pass the $100,000 for the erection of public buildings in this city. Did Cassidy lose all of his influence just at the time when he could have utilized it for his State? Had we had a Republican Representative in the House there is no doubt that the measure would have passed without trouble.

Fish and Giant Powder.

A lot of scoundrels have been for the last ten days blasting out the fish pools in Hope Valley, Wolf Creek and Woodford's Canyon, and the dead trout float down stream in hundreds. Men caught in this sort of devilry should be dealt with on the spot.

Moonlight Party.

The young ladies of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will hold a moonlight party at the pavilion at Treadway's Park during the last week of August, of which due notice will be given.

Thinning Out the James Gang.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 15.—Dick Little, a well-known member of the old James gang, was arrested here to-day at noon by a United States Marshal, charged with complicity in robbing a United States Paymaster at Mussel Shoals, Alabama, on March 11, 1881. The amount taken was $5,200, and it is supposed the robbery was perpetrated by Jesse James, William Ryan, who is now serving twenty-five years' sentence for train robbery, and Dick Little. Little asserts his innocence, and he can prove that the arrest is the work of surviving members of the James gang, who have a grudge against him for the information he gave the officers which led to the breaking up of the gang.

The Second Bullet.

It will be remembered that when President Garfield was shot at in the Baltimore and Potomac depot the second ball passed through the waiting room and lodged in a glazier's box. This ball was found by the glazier—August Plocksties—after the lapse of a day or two in his putty, and by him turned over to the District Attorney, to be used if necessary at the trial. It has now been returned to Plocksties with certificates from Mr. Corkhill and Dr. Bliss vouching for the identity of the bullet. Plocksties exhibited it to a Republican reporter and seemed to be highly elated at being its proud possessor. He expects to make a small bonanza out of it by selling it to some circus man.—Washington Republican.

President Arthur's Father

Rev. William Arthur was a man of ability and originality, who formed his opinions without much reference to the views of others, and was most persistent and vigorous in asserting and maintaining them. A recalcitrant deacon or trustee in a church over which he was pastor had no life of peace; the best thing was to maintain an armed neutrality while Mr. Arthur was at the head of affairs. Yet he was a man of kindly and tender feelings, who could be swayed by them, but never by opposition. Quick in repartee and ready in resource, he was a formidable opponent in debate or in strategy, and few men dared to try conclusions with him. Coming from Ireland, he brought with him the mental peculiarities of his nation, as well as a rich, strong Irish accent, which gave a peculiar richness and flavor to his public efforts and to his private conversation; and few brought in contact with him but have recollections of his shrewd and brusque remarks. He was passionate and impulsive, often making enemies by his sharp utterances, and always fought to win. He had the reputation as well as the appearance of being dictatorial and of carrying out his purposes with small regard to the plans of other people. Notwithstanding his undoubted ability, he never met with the success to which he felt that he was entitled, and this somewhat embittered his manner and feelings. Yet the man was most thoroughly honest and truthful; no consideration of policy or of care for his own comfort and welfare was permitted to influence his conduct and if he did what was right in his own eyes it was because it appeared right to him; he could neither be cajoled, bribed nor persuaded to go out of his predetermined path.—Boston Transcript.

PURE FRESH MILK

CAN BE BOUGHT OF

F. Ambrosetti,

DELIVERED MORNING AND EVENING.

THOSE WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

Children, and delicate persons using milk diet, will do well to order one cow's milk of us. The cows are all healthy, and have clear water and soiled meadow upon which to feed. I do not feed any cows on manure or slops. I do not live in the neighborhood where the sewage water of the city goes. I do not sell my customers poor milk. My dairy premises are west from Carson, where the pure mountain water and wild grasses combine in the honest production of nature's most nourishing beverage.

As Carson people can safely call on me for the purest article of milk at prices to suit the times, and a selection of my premises and stock is desired. [img]
